

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THE AUTHORS would like to thank:

John T. Davis, whose transcriptions of the later chapters, and whose re-writing and editing suggestions, were essential to the completion of the book.

RICK MITCHELL would like to thank:

Lori Sumako, for putting up with me during the extended duration of this project; Peter Guralnick, for the inspiration that sometimes it's the lesser-known musical figures who have the best stories to tell; Cornell Hurd, who initially persuaded me to help Johnny tell his story and whose confidence in the project never wavered; Janne Shuler, who did much of the difficult transcribing of the early chapters; Jurgen Koop, who did the discography and the photos; Dave and Carolyn Ritz, John Morthland, Weyman McBride, and Joe Nick Patoski, who read the manuscript in various stages of its development; Roger Wood, who recommended the book to the University of Texas Press; Theresa May, who called me back the day she got the manuscript; the staff at UT Press, for their consistent enthusiasm and professionalism.

JOHNNY BUSH would like to thank:
