This English version of Iphigenia is dedicated with gratitude to all those who have offered me their help and encouragement: Naomi Lindstrom, at the University of Texas at Austin, and Theresa J. May, my editor at the University of Texas Press, who together gave me the opportunity to work with a novel I have long admired, and whose faith and patience have been unfailing; Imajean Gray and Patricia McKinney, who made corrections and suggestions; Joan McInerney, who gave me good advice; my daughter Ruth Bilbo, who also proofed parts of the novel and at whose dining room table the first hesitant passages of this long adventure were transcribed; my daughters Barbara and Phyllis and to everyone who has shown me such trust and patience during the four-year gestation of Iphigenia.
