

Contents

Introduction

- Coping in a Complex Age: Challenge, Response, and Reform
in the House of Representatives 3
G. Calvin Mackenzie

Part I. Defining the Job

The Context of Job Performance 23

1. Can Congress Ever Be a Popular Institution? 31
Glenn R. Parker
2. The Two Arenas of Congress 56
Thomas E. Cavanagh
3. Casework in the House 78
John R. Johannes
4. The Politics of Congressional Ethics 97
Allan J. Katz

Part II. Managing the Work

The Context of Work Management 119

5. Controlling Legislative Time 127
Thomas J. O'Donnell
6. Personnel Management in the House 151
David W. Brady
7. The Management of Legislative Offices 183
Susan Webb Hammond
8. Providing Administrative Support Services to the House 210
Jarold A. Kieffer

Part III. Informing the Decision-Making Process

The Context of Information and Decision Making 237

9. Congressional Information Sources 247
Louis Sandy Maisel

10. Computer Usage in the House 275
Jeffrey A. Goldberg
11. The Evolving Role and Effectiveness of the Congressional Research Agencies 292
James A. Thurber

Conclusion

Organization and Innovation in the House of Representatives 319
Joseph Cooper

Notes on Contributors 357

Index 361