

ILLUSTRATIONS

Following page 152

1. Bedichek as a young man
2. Webb as a young man and at Big Bend
3. Dobie as a boy and as a first lieutenant
4. Bedichek in Deming, New Mexico; Mrs. Bedichek with Hobo
5. Bedichek with daughters Sarah and Mary Virginia
6. Bertha and Frank Dobie at a hacienda near Mexico City
7. Dobie with the last survivor of Old Tascosa
8. Dobie while lecturing
9. Dobie by Waller Creek
10. Webb in his study and at Oxford
11. Dobie talking with friends, at Cambridge and at home
12. Webb, a "learned man"
13. Dobie, "capable of running his own life"
14. Bedichek with his grandsons and on a field trip
15. Dobie's face, a reflection of the joy of life
16. Dobie and his beloved land
17. The Webb Family
18. Mr. Bedi's understanding of nature
19. Bedichek, "free from greed and jealousy"
20. Dobie lighting his pipe
21. The Golden Wedding Anniversary
22. Bedichek, a Texas naturalist
23. Webb with Bill Kittrell
24. Dobie with Caroline Wardlaw
25. Dobie, a "good listener"
26. Bedichek, a man at peace
27. Webb, the "most thoroughly honest person imaginable"
28. With Dobie in his back yard

29. Bedichek at his writing table
30. Terrell and Walter Webb
31. Bertha and Frank Dobie
32. Bedichek and Dobie on "Bedi's Rock," and Friday Mountain