ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

A study such as this which involves many different sociopolitical perspectives must depend on the intellectual and emotional support of other individuals. Naomi Lindstrom and Enrique Medina played crucial roles in assisting me in defining the scope of this research, while Roberto Reis, Luis Peña, Magdalena Maiz, Roberto Previdi Froelich, Norma Mabee, and Denize Araujo provided me with many occasions for productive dialogue. My research assistants, Daniel Altamiranda, Salvador Oropesa, Roselyn Costantino, and Darrell Lockhart, made enormous contributions to the development of the manuscript and guaranteed its technical integrity, while at the same time offering constructive comments on the content.
