

ILLUSTRATIONS

(following p. 30)

Tenochtitlán
Tlazoltéotl
Tláloc
Tezcatlipoca
MayaueI
Xipetotec
Quetzalcóatl
Aztec Medical Practices in Mural at Teotihuacán

(following p. 94)

A Page from The Badianus Manuscript
Hospital de San Hipólito
Patio of the Hospital of Jesus
Patio of the Hospital of San Juan de Dios
Chapel of Hospital de San Lázaro
Street Scene of Colonial Mexico City
The Convent of San Cosme

(following p. 206)

Doctor Examining a Sick Child on Village Plaza
Doctor Dressing Machete Wound
Doctor Examining Pinto Victim
Jungle Area
Brigade Workers Spraying against Malaria
Messenger of Health Number One
Messenger of Health in Service
Nurses Testing for Brucellosis
Doctor Treating a Patient

A Play Demonstrating Sanitation and Hygiene
Rural Midwives in Class
Searching for Pinto Victims
Public Washstands
A Scorpion-Proofed Hut
Teaching Rural Inhabitants Proper Hygiene
Preparing a Patient for Treatment with a Betatron
Children at Dinner
Mural by Nishizawa
Detail of Mural by David Alfaro Siqueiros
Auditoriums of the General Hospital, National Medical Center
Scale Model of the National Medical Center
Hall of Congresses, National Medical Center
La Independencia
Sanitary Unit
Social Security Clinic
Rural Health Center
Urban Health Center
The Doctors' Bullfight
Drs. José Alvarez Amézquita and Miguel E. Bustamante