

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Democrats and the Slave Power	1
1. “Fidelity and Firmness”: Northern Democrats and the Crises of 1850	10
2. “Harmony, Unity, and Victory”: State Politics and Presidential Posturing	38
3. “One of the Most Reliable Politicians upon This Subject of Slavery”: The Rewards of Fidelity and the Perils of Power	63
4. “Pandora’s Box”: Northern Democrats in Command	90
5. “Leave Us of the North to Fight the Great Battle”: Party Punishments and Purges	120
6. “The Strongest Northern Man on Southern Principles”: James Buchanan and Southern Power	148
7. “Let Us Stand by Our Colors”: Lecompton and Minority Rule	176
8. “We Regarded You as Brothers”: Defeat and Division	205

9. “Though the Heavens Fall”: 1860
and Beyond 226

Abbreviations 251

Notes 253

Bibliography 313

Index 323