
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction—On History, Thailand, and the Scholarship of Craig J. Reynolds Maurizio Peleggi	1
Part I — Historiography, Knowledge, and Power
The Revolt of Khun Phaen: Contesting Power in Early Modern Siam Chris Baker and Pasuk Phongpaichit	19
Fabrication, Stealth, and Copying of Historical Writings: The Historiographical Misconducts of Mr. Kulap of Siam Thongchai Winichakul	41
Renegade Royalist: Autobiography and Siam’s Disavowed Prince Prisdang Tamara Loos	63
The Plot of Thai Art History: Buddhist Sculpture and the Myth of National Origins Maurizio Peleggi	79
Part II — Political and Business Culture
Republicanism in Thai History Patrick Jory	97
Madness, Authoritarianism, and Political Participation: The Curious Case of Cham Jamratnet James Ockey	119
Big Is Good: The Banharn-Jaemsai Observatory Tower in Suphanburi Yoshinori Nishizaki	143
Marketing Business Knowledge and Consumer Culture before the Boom: The Case of Khoo Khaeng Magazine Villa Vilaithong	163
“Governance” in Thailand Kasian Tejapira	181
Appendix — Publications by Craig J. Reynolds	197
Contributors	207

