

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction
Intersecting Histories: Cooperation, Consumerism, and “Le Mouvement Social”	I
PART I Origins and Early Years of Consumer Cooperation
1 Prologue to Consumer Cooperation: Workers’ Associationism, 1834–1851	15
2 Competing Strands: Individualism versus Collectivism, 1851–1885	29
PART II Consumer Cooperation and the Politics of Commercial Concentration
3 The “Retailing Revolution”: Consumer Cooperatives and Chain Stores	69
4 Consumer Cooperation as the “Third Way”: The Union Coopérative	79

5	Consumer Cooperation as the “Third Pillar”: Socialist Consumer Cooperation	119
PART III Strains and Tensions within Consumer Cooperation
6	Cooperation in the Nord	169
7	Women and Cooperation	199
PART IV Consumer Cooperation and Capitalist Commerce
8	Waltzing with the Capitalists: Re-visioning Consumer Cooperation, 1912–1919	227
9	“A Movement for All Consumers”: Consumer Cooperation in the 1920s	259
	Conclusion	293
	Bibliography	297
	Index	309