

Contents

Notes on contributors	page vii
Foreword by the Rt Hon Hilary Benn MP	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
List of abbreviations	xii
 Introduction: analysing oratory in Labour politics Andrew S. Crines and Richard Hayton	 1
1 The oratory of Aneurin Bevan Andrew S. Crines and Keith Laybourn	14
2 The oratory of Hugh Gaitskell Timothy Heppell and Thomas McMeeking	31
3 The oratory of Harold Wilson Michael Hill	46
4 The oratory of Barbara Castle David S. Moon	62
5 The oratory of James Callaghan Stephen Meredith	76
6 The oratory of Michael Foot David Stewart	93
7 The oratory of Tony Benn Mark Garnett	110
8 The oratory of Neil Kinnock David S. Moon	125
9 The oratory of John Smith Robin T. Pettitt	141

10	The oratory of Tony Blair Mark Bennister	156
11	The oratory of Gordon Brown Judi Atkins	172
12	The oratory of Ed Miliband Andrew S. Crines	187
	Conclusion: the changing face of Labour oratory Andrew S. Crines	200
	Bibliography	205
	Index	224