

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
List of abbreviations	xiv
1 Getting intimate	1
Daniel C. Remein and Erica Weaver
Part I: Beowulf in public
2 Community, joy, and the intimacy of narrative in Beowulf	31
Benjamin A. Saltzman
3 Beowulf and the intimacy of large parties	54
Roberta Frank
4 Beowulf as Wayland's work: thinking, feeling, making	73
James Paz
Part II: Beowulf at home
5 Beowulf and babies	97
Donna Beth Ellard
6 At home in the fens with the Grendelkin	120
Christopher Abram
Part III: Beowulf outside
7 Elemental intimacies: agency in the Finnsburg episode	147
Mary Kate Hurley
8 What the raven told the eagle: animal language and the return of loss in Beowulf	164
Mo Pareles

Part IV: Beowulf's contact list

- 9 Men into monsters: troubling race, ethnicity,
and masculinity in Beowulf 189
Catalin Taranu
- 10 Sad men in Beowulf 210
Robin Norris
- 11 Differing intimacies: Beowulf translations by
Seamus Heaney and Thomas Meyer 227
David Hadbawnik

Part V: Beowulf in bed

- 12 Beowulf and Andreas: intimate relations 257
Irina Dumitrescu
- 13 Beowulf, Bryher, and the Blitz: a queer history 279
Peter Buchanan
- 14 Dating Wiglaf: emotional connections to the young hero in Beowulf 304
Mary Dockray-Miller

- Index* 319