

Figures

1	The cost-based approach to collective action	page 20
2	Antun Saadeh, founder and leader of the SSNP	264
3	As'ad Talas, who played a central role in al-Zaim's overthrow	264
4	Habib Abi Chahla, Lebanon's vice prime minister and TAPLINE representative in Lebanon	264
5	Pierre Gemayel, founder and leader of the Phalanges	265
6	Riad al-Solh, Lebanon's prime minister who was assassinated in 1951	265
7	The Hashemite kings: Ali of the Hejaz, Abdullah of Jordan, and Faisal of Iraq	266
8	President Husni al-Zaim with his top military officers	266
9	Sultan Pacha al-Atrash, the leader of the al-Atrash family in the Jebel al-Druze and Suweida areas	267
10	Muhsin al-Barazi, Syria's prime minister and al-Zaim's associate	267