

COMPUTER LAW REVIEW International

CRi

Issue 2

15 April 2017

P. 33–64

A Journal of Information Law
and Technology

Special contributions by

Articles

- Rebecca Day/Sam De Silva* – IT-Procurement and the Risk of Unintended Fees for Indirect Software Usage 34
- N.S. Nappinai* – Dark Side of IoT 39
- Nigel Parker* – Brexit and Data Protection Legislation – Back to the Drawing Board? 45
- John Rumbold/Barbara Pierscioneck* – Does your electronic butler owe you a duty of confidentiality? 48

Case Law

- UK: Liability for Additional Licence and Maintenance Fees due to Indirect Software Use – SAP UK Ltd v. DIAGEO GB Ltd 54

Updates

- Ian Lloyd* – UK: Be Careful What You Tweet 62

ottoschmidt

www.cr-international.com

ITECHLAW®

INTERNATIONAL TECHNOLOGY LAW ASSOCIATION

World Technology Law Conference

Conference Theme:
Technology and a Changing World

May 3-5, 2017
Chicago, Illinois, United States

Sponsorships still available!

Session Topics:

- Cool Technology and Where it is Taking Us
- Cars, Cars, and More Cars
- What Went Wrong - The IT Project Failure
- Data Fever: The Commercial Exploitation of Data
- Data Protection Differences: Big Data in China, Europe's GDPR, Brexit, and Brazil Update
- Practicing Law Ethically in 2030: How Legal Tech will change the Game
- The Global Vendor Perspective: What Legal Issues Keep Them Up at Night
- Artificial Intelligence and Augmented Reality

<http://itechlaw.org/Chicago2017>
memberservices@itechlaw.org | +1 703 506 2895