

Contents

Chapter 1: The Puzzle of Hebrews	1
One Puzzle Among Many	3
Appeals to the Structural Analysis of Hebrews	5
Topical Analyses	5
Earlier Examples	6
Contemporary Examples	7
Literary Analyses	8
F. Büchsel	8
Rafael Gyllenberg	9
F. Thien	9
Leon Vaganay	10
A. Descamps	12
Albert Vanhoye	12
Wolfgang Nauck	13
Rhetorical Analyses	14
Hermann Frhr. von Soden	15
Keijo Nissilä	15
Walter G. Übelacker	16
Craig R. Koester	16
Linguistic Analyses	17
Observations	20
Appeals to Conceptual Worlds	22
Gnosticism	23
Philo and Middle Platonism	27
Qumran	30
The Samaritans	33
Merkabah Mysticism	35
Observations	37
Appeals to Reading Practices	39
J. Rendel Harris and the Two Joshuas	39
F. C. Synge and Jesus-Joshua	41
Albert Vanhoye and Numbers 14	42
George Wesley Buchanan and Hebrews as Homiletical Midrash	44
David Flusser and Midrashic Fungi	45

Observations	46
The Way Forward	48
Chapter 2: A Wider Intertextuality: Excavating the Cave of Resonance with the History of Scriptural Interpretation	50
Lessons from Pauline Interpreters	51
Richard Hays's Echoes of Scripture	52
Initial Responses to Echoes of Scripture	56
James A. Sanders	56
Craig A. Evans	58
William Scott Green	59
Christopher D. Stanley	60
Subsequent Modifications of Echoes of Scripture	61
Frank Thielman	61
James M. Scott	62
Sylvia C. Keesmaat	63
Andrew H. Wakefield	65
Observations	69
Lessons from Hebrew Bible Interpreters	72
Michael Fishbane	73
Aggadic Exegesis	74
Mantological Exegesis	77
James L. Kugel	78
Observations	83
Chapter 3: Reading Traditions for Num 13–14	85
Reading Traditions for Num 13–14	86
Numbers	87
The Scouts' Expedition	87
The Scouts' Report	89
The People's Response	89
God's Response	90
The People's Expedition	90
Deuteronomy	91
The Scouts' Expedition	91
The Scouts' Report	91
The People's Response	92
God's Response	92

The People's Expedition	92
Comparison of the Canonical Accounts	93
The Scouts' Expedition	93
The Scouts' Report	94
The People's Response	95
God's Response	96
The People's Expedition	97
General Observations on the Canonical Accounts	97
Aaron	97
Caleb and Joshua	98
Moses	99
Second Temple Interpretation	102
Pseudo-Philo	103
The Scout's Expedition	103
The Scouts' Report	104
The People's Response	105
God's Response	106
Observations	107
Josephus	109
The Scouts' Expedition	109
The Scouts' Report	109
The People's Response	110
God's Response	111
Observations	111
Philo	114
The Scouts' Expedition	114
The Scouts' Report	115
The People's Response	117
God's Response	118
Observations	118
Conclusions	120
 Chapter 4: Reading Traditions for Zech 3	 127
 Recent Scholarship about the Levi-Priestly Tradition	 128
James C. VanderKam	128
Robert A. Kugler	129
James Kugel	130
Kathryn Lopez	133
Zechariah 3	135

Zechariah 3 (MT)	135
Initial Description of the Divine Council Vision	137
Deliberations of the Divine Council	140
Excursus: Zechariah 3 and Joshua's Ordination	148
A Concluding Oracle	150
Zechariah 3 (LXX)	163
Second Temple Texts and Exegetical Motifs	167
Introducing the Texts	167
An Overview of the Specific Motifs to be Explored	173
The Motif of a Priest in the Divine Council	173
Aramaic Levi	174
Jubilees	176
Testament of Levi	177
Joseph and Aseneth	180
Pirque Rabbi Eleizer	181
Conclusions	181
The Motif of Rebuking the Accuser	182
Aramaic Levi and Qumran Texts	182
The Apocalypse of Abraham	185
The Motif of Purification and New Clothing	186
Aramaic Levi	188
Jubilees	192
The Testament of Levi	193
Tg. Zechariah	194
The Apocalypse of Abraham	196
The Motif of Continual Access	198
Observations	201
 Chapter 5: The Joshuas of the Epistle to the Hebrews	 205
Hebrews as a Priestly Writing	206
Hebrews 4:14–10:19	207
Hebrews 10:19–13:25	214
Sacerdotal Language	216
Pilgrimage as Cultic Journey	218
The Hieratic Ground and Goal of Faithfulness	219
Hebrews 1:1–2:18	220
Rationales for the Flow of the Argument in Hebrews 3 and 4 . .	225
Harold W. Attridge	225
William L. Lane	226

David A. deSilva	228
Craig R. Koester	229
Assessing the Survey	230
The Shape of Hebrews 3 and 4	232
Hebrews 3:12–19	233
Hebrews 4:1–5	236
Hebrews 4:6–11	243
Considering the Two Joshuas	246
The Joshua of Numbers	247
If Joshua Had Given Them Rest	247
Jesus as ἀρχηγός	248
The Word They Heard	250
United by Faith with Those Who Heard	251
For Whoever Enters God’s Rest	252
The Use of Num 13–14 and Joshua’s Faithfulness	253
Two Objections	255
The Joshua of Zechariah	257
The Motif of a Priest in the Divine Council	257
The Motif of Rebuking the Accuser	259
The Motif of Purification	261
The Motif of Continual Access	262
The Three Joshuas	264
Chapter 6: Implications and Directions for Future Research	266
Bibliography	272
Primary Texts	272
Biblical Commentaries	273
Studies	276
Index of Ancient Sources	295
Index of Modern Authors	309
Index of Subjects	315