

Contents

Semantics and Beyond: Philosophical and Linguistic Inquiries.

Preface

Piotr Stalmaszczyk 1

On the Normativity of Speech Acts

Brian Ball 9

Representations without Representa: Content and Illusion in Linguistic Theory

John Collins 27

Kripke, Putnam, and the Description Theory

Luis Fernández Moreno 65

The Meaning of Formal Semantics

Chris Fox 85

Frege's Puzzle and the Direct Reference Theory

Pilip Kawczyński 109

Situation Semantics, Time, and Descriptive Indexicals

Katarzyna Kijania-Placek 127

The Prescription Argument Against the Normativity of Meaning

Joanna Klimczyk 149

The Sense of Finitude and the Finitude of Sense

Paul Livingston 161

Green Leaves Again! An Assessment of Kennedy and McNally's Solution to Travis' Challenge

Ernesto Perini-Santos 185

Borg's Minimalism and the Problem of Paradox

Mark Pinder 207

Lexical vs. Grammatical Meaning Revisited

Tabea Reiner 231

Sentence, Proposition, and Context. On the Idea of an Intermediate Level
Stefan Riegelnik	241
On the Semantic Relevance of Romanovs
Arthur Sullivan	255
What Incompleteness Arguments Tell Us about Semantics and Linguistic Competence
Massimiliano Vignolo	271
On Underdetermination of Contextualism
Marián Zouhar	291
Index	313