

Call for Papers: Varia Submissions

Zeitschrift für Tourismuswissenschaft - Journal of Tourism Science

The Zeitschrift für Tourismuswissenschaft - Journal of Tourism Science - cordially invites you to submit manuscripts for forthcoming Varia issues. The journal continues the tradition of in-depth scientific discourse on various aspects of tourism and is aimed at a broad audience of researchers and practitioners.

Focus and topics:

We are looking for contributions that deal with multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary topics related to tourism phenomena. We are particularly, but not exclusively, interested in contributions from the following fields

- History, geography
- Communication and media studies
- Cultural Studies, Ethnology, Cultural Anthropology
- Methodology/Statistics, Ecology
- Psychology, Sociology
- Economics, Business Administration
- Pedagogy

Submission process:

Please submit your manuscripts via our online submission system on the journal's website. For more information, please visit our website and click on Call for Papers. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us directly.

Your paper will be published under Golden Open Access and CC-BY 4.0 license. This allows you to reach a wider audience.

Please indicate which contribution category you would like to submit for. The following submissions are possible:

Submission category	Guidelines	Scope
Full articles	A full article should be structured in a classical way. The article introduces to the relevant research question, it deals with the current state of research and contributes significantly to the development of theory in tourism sciences. Of course, well-founded theory-guided empirical research can also be presented. All submissions will be evaluated in a double-blind procedure by two experts.	20 pages at maximum (including tables, figures, abstract, footnotes and references) In total 56.000 characters

Impulses and contributions to discussion	Short statements (preferably in English) that stimulate the discussion on central issues in tourism science. In addition, contributions to the discussion can be formulated in response to the impulses. The contributions will be reviewed by those responsible for the issue.	10,000 characters (at maximum)
Research notes	Presentation of current empirical projects or studies that are relevant for tourism research. Project reports should provide an overview of the empirical research. The structure should follow classical reports (theoretical introduction, state of the art, questions and hypotheses, study design, results, discussion). The contributions will be reviewed by those responsible for the issue.	10 pages at maximum In total 28,000 characters
